Sir

Re Pension application of T N Nanjappa, Toll Inspector, Tumkur Town Municipality

In forwarding herewith in original, the connected pension papers of Nanjappa received from the President, Town Municipal Council, Tumkur, I have the honour to state as follows -

The President states that the Toll Inspector was ordered to be retired from service from 1-7-1942 in accordance with the resolution of the Council, dated 25-3-42 As the post of the toll Inspector was being continued from year to year, since the toll establishment was temporary, It is stated that the Council, have at their meeting held on 26-7-1942, resolved that a recommendation be made to Government for sanctioning pension at Rs 11-4-0 as a special case, since he has worked as Toll Inspector for over 13 years and that his work was quite satisfactory throughout his service The incumbent is a permanent Pound Keeper on Rs 20/-P M

I request that orders of Government may be kindly obtained in the matter Pension papers will be submitted to Government seperately, through the Comptroller

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

for Deputy Commissioner,
